

Democracy is all but dead when restrictions on media ownership are lifted, as seems likely.

We need more voices, less influenced by the tyranny of HUGE MONEY MEDIA. Do not lift the last remaining protection we have against corporate ownership of media. I will be contacting local newspapers and politicians on this matter.